

Advert for the post of An Operations Manager.

Healthcare professional recruitment Services, a leading temporary staffing and Care provider is looking to fill in a lucrative and dynamic position of Operation Manager.

Role and Job description of Operation Manager.

The Operations manager in a domiciliary/home care setting will use his/her strong leadership skills to maximise operational efficiency and to drive the growth of the business forward.

In the quest for providing excellent quality home care and domiciliary service, he/she will enjoy being part of the management team leading the delivery of the organisation services. This varied role requires outstanding communication and analytical skills, great planning and organisational ability, a talent for strong leadership together with extensive management experience in social care is desirable but not an incumbent.

The Company will offer the chance to be part of a supportive team where his/her skills and knowledge can really make a difference to people's lives. He/she will enjoy a collaborative working relationship with the Executive directors and Registered manager to make sure services are legally compliant and continuously improving and evolving.

The Operations manager will have a strong influence on how people see the company's ethos and brand. The ideal candidate will have proven experience of leading and managing business relationships. Appearance and presentation will be the forte for this role as a brand representative.

This challenging role requires a strategic thinker who has the ability to switch to a practical hands-on approach when necessary. Working with the Executive directors, you will develop the business strategy and lead on its implementation. Working in securing new package of care, Securing and maintaining current packages, bidding and checking proContract procurement portal for opportunities and head-hunting local authority commissioning body as partners will be the focal point of effective working strategy.

You will also provide day to day operational support to the registered manager and the care teams. There will be plenty of opportunities to use your initiative and apply creative problem-solving skills. A calm manner and the ability to think clearly whilst under pressure are essential for this important role.

The company will offer continuous training and development to keep you up to date with best practice. As a brand ambassador for HCPR Services Ltd, you will be part of a strong team, championing the rights of our clients. If you enjoy the satisfaction of leading the delivery of great services of care, the executive directors in unison with the Registered manager will render support for effective communication and working partnership.

HCPR Services, a leading brand in providing care in London and national welcome you to this great opportunity and hope your ability will lead to sustainability and growth for the company.
