Job Title: Physiotherapist

Location: London and Greater London Area

Job Type: Full-time/Part-time

Salary: Competitive and an attractive remuneration

Job Summary:

We are seeking a skilled and compassionate physiotherapist to join our team. The successful candidate will be responsible for assessing and treating patients with physical difficulties resulting from illness, injury, disability, or aging. The physiotherapist will develop customized treatment plans, monitor progress, and educate patients and their families on exercises and techniques to improve their mobility, strength, and overall physical function.

Key Responsibilities:

- Conduct assessments to determine patients' physical abilities, limitations, and pain levels.
- Develop personalized treatment plans for patients, including exercise, manual therapy, and other interventions.
- Monitor patients' progress and adjust treatment plans as necessary.
- Educate patients and their families on exercises and techniques to improve their physical function.
- Maintain accurate and up-to-date patient records and treatment plans.
- Collaborate with other healthcare professionals, such as doctors, nurses, and occupational therapists, to provide comprehensive care for patients.
- Maintain a safe and clean working environment.
- Adhere to ethical and professional standards of practice.

Requirements:

- Bachelor's or Master's degree in Physiotherapy from an accredited institution.
- Valid state/provincial license to practice as a physiotherapist.
- Minimum of 3 years of experience in clinical physiotherapy practice.
- Strong knowledge of anatomy, physiology, and biomechanics.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team.
- Strong organizational and time management skills.
- Flexibility to work evenings and weekends as required.
- Current CPR and first aid certification.

If you meet the above requirements and are passionate about helping patients improve their physical function, we encourage you to apply for this exciting opportunity. We offer a competitive salary, benefits package, and a supportive work environment.
