48 HOUR WAIVER

The Working Time Regulations Act 1998 (the regulations) require the company to limit your average weekly working time to 48 hours unless you agree with the company that the limit shall not apply to you.

The company wishes to have an agreement with you. It proposes an agreement (which shall apply until terminated by notice) on basis that:

- 1) The 48-hour limit on average weekly working time will not apply to you.
- 2) You may terminate the agreement (so that the 48-hour time limit would not apply to you) by giving the managing director one-week written notice. For avoidance of doubt, any notice bringing this agreement to and shall not be construed as termination by the temporary worker of his/her employment with Healthcare Professionals Recruitment Group.
- 3) Under the regulations, the company must keep records relating to your working time. This is the case whether you reach an agreement with the company about waiving working time limits.

If you accept the company's proposal, please sign and on the form provided. This document will not be a record of agreement between you and Healthcare Professionals Recruitment Group.
